

Profile – Phyllis Davis

Phyllis is the Chief Nursing Officer Al Jalila Children's Speciality Hospital Dubai, United Arab Emirates.

Phyllis is a Registered Nurse with postgraduate qualifications in Operating Theatre Nursing.

Phyllis Completed Masters Degree of Management at the University of Technology Sydney in 1999.

Phyllis is an active member of the NSW Operating Theatre Association (OTA) and the Australian College of Operating Room Nurses (ACORN) and was the ACORN President 2000 –2002. Phyllis has been actively involved in Standards Review and Development for the past decade.

Phyllis has been involved in Operating Suite reviews in New South Wales, Queensland and Tasmania and has been a member of the Surgical Service Taskforce – NSW Health for the past 10 years

In October 2005 Phyllis was seconded to the Nursing and Midwifery Office of NSW Health to Coordinate the Enrolled Nurses Perioperative Project.

Phyllis was the Daisy Ayris Memorial Lecturer at the National Association of Theatre Nurses - UK Annual Congress in 2002.

In May 2006 Phyllis was awarded the Nicholas Stening Education Grant for the Best Paper presented at the Australian College of Operating Room Nurses Annual Conference, held in Canberra.

Phyllis was awarded Fellowship of ACORN in May 2006 and Life Membership of the NSW Operating Theatre Association in 2012. Phyllis is an Ambassador for the International Federation of Perioperative Nurses.

For the last decade Phyllis has worked with the Perioperative Nurses in Papua New Guinea providing support and assistance to the Papua New Guinea Perioperative Nurses Society.